Workshop Assistant · Full-Time
Molo Design, Ltd. (molo)
Vancouver, Canada

$25 / hour
Monday - Thursday: 8:00 am - 12:00 pm; 1:00 pm - 5:00 pm

the company

molo is a multi-disciplinary design and production studio based in Vancouver, Canada. molo's innovative works have received international recognition and have been acquired into museums and galleries around the world, including the Museum of Modern Art in New York. The molo team is an assembly of curious and skilled individuals that facilitate the studio's endeavours with passion and care.

the role

Workshop Assistants support the daily operations of the molo studio and workshop, which includes building and packaging products, receiving shipments, performing quality control checks, maintaining standards of cleanliness and organization, and carrying out product customizations. Workshop Assistants must be spatially aware and considerate of volume and supply. The role requires ownership - genuine care to uphold molo's standards and a natural intuition for problem-solving. Direct experience is not required. This role offers:

- extended medical and dental plan after three months of employment
- complete training from the beginning, along with clear guidelines and expectations
- inclusion in a hard-working and focused team
- healthy, comfortable and clean work environment
- variety of work
- potential for personal and professional development
- hands on work with high-quality products

requirements

- canadian citizen or permanent resident
- healthy strong and energetic
- positive attitude
- reliable and hardworking
- ability to focus while maintaining awareness
- follows directions

to apply

Applications are by email only and attachments must be in PDF format. In your cover letter, we ask that you address three questions: Why is molo a brand you would be proud to represent? How do your interests align with molo? When has your energy and enthusiasm paid off professionally? Your resume and cover letter to coral@molodesign.com

Thank you for your interest. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted. Please do not call or visit the studio.